THE GRAND OPERA-HOUSE, -- One of the largest audiences that we have seen for many days was assembled at the Grand Opera-house yesterday afternoon to witness Maggie Mitchell's interpretation of the new play "Lorle." The scenery and settings were beautiful, especially in the first act, where the old country tav-ern at sunset under the linden trees was represented with a naturalness hardly to be conceived. "Lorle" is one of Miss Mitchell's best characters and should be given again during her stay. "Gentlemen: I baye the honor to acknowledge receipt of your invitation to be present at a meeting of your Committee to-day at 2 P. M. It is probable that prior business engagements may prevent my complying with your request; and desiring that no delay may take place in your consideration of the ordinance referred to you for settling litigation with the Cincinnati Consolidated tion with the Cincinnati Consolidated Street Railroad Company, I write this note to say that this Company is ready to end all matters in controversy between the city and Company upon the basis of said ordinance, or any equitable modification thereof fair to the public and just to the Company.

named in the ordinance before you (pre-pared at the instance of citizens of the East End'), the computation of $2,380 was based upon the ordinance of March 28, 1873 (now a subject of litigation), which provided also for a single fare on the 'East and West End Division,' which was operated under the provisions thereof from July 8, 1873, to April 8, of this year, at a serious loss to the Company, as before stated to your Committee.

The ordinance divides the East and West End lines into two routes at Wal-West End lines into two routes at Walnut street, charging a separate fare on each. The committee amended by making one fare from one end of the line to the other; restricted the time of the extension of the charter after the expiration of the present contract to fitteen years; also amended to require transfer tickets, without charge, for passengers desiring to ride over Route No. 9 south of Fifth street. Provision was also made for an extension of the Third and Fourth street line to Mt. Adams Inclined Plane, and to Price's Inclined Plane, no additional fare. A penalty for failure to pay car license was inserted, and the ordinance as amended was recommended to Council.

That cheap adulterated baking powders and flavoring extracts are warranted equal to Dr. Price's, when it is known that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and True Flavoring Extracts are the purest and healthiest made? It is because the adulterated kinds are bought less and give a better profit. Good goods have a valuation and afford a less profit to the seller as well as the manufacturer. Unprincipled dealers, like unprincipled manufacturers, will palm off adulterated articles upon community to engender disease, because it puts a few more dollars into the pocket. This is the reason, and consumers should know it, and demand those articles, which are used in food, that are made by manufacturers who defy competition in price, and make the quality of their goods the primary consideration.
